Q & GROOVE

For the 14th consecutive year, this anticipated community concert will bring Coloradans together to help kids and families thrive. Q & Groove is known for featuring the next big name in music, and this year's featured artist will be Jonah Kagen! Guests will enjoy a live performance, BBQ, alcoholic beverages, a silent and live auction, spirit pull, and more!

TICKETS AND SPONSORSHIPS INCLUDE

- Concert and event admission
- Complimentary BBQ and desserts
- Complimentary select wine, beer, and cocktails

ABOUT JONAH KAGEN

23-year-old singer and songwriter Jonah Kagen is making waves in the music industry, inviting his nearly 3 million Spotify listeners to join his journey of folk, rock, and pop. Hailing from South Carolina, Kagen's honesty and vulnerability shine through in his music, where he shares the theme of navigating life's ups and downs with captivating lyrics and a one-of-a-kind acoustic vibe. Kagen took up guitar at six, diving deep into the instrument's technical aspects after his musician grandfather showed him performance videos. Earning praise from Zach Bryan, he's already cut impressive figures with over 225+ million global streams and is playing at four major music festivals in 2024. Kagen is undoubtedly an artist on the rise, bringing undeniable energy and sincerity through his multifaceted sound. For more information, visit www.jonahkagen.com.

ABOUT TENNYSON CENTER Tennyson Center for Children opened in 1904 as an orphanage for children in Colorado.
